What is Geering Up?

UBC Geering Up Engineering Outreach is a non-profit organization dedicated to engaging the children and youth of British Columbia in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) through fun, innovative, and hands-on experiments and projects. We recognize that there are systemic barriers that prevent many people from pursuing careers in STEM. Thus, Geering Up strives to reach all children and youth, regardless of gender, ethnicity, culture, or socio-economic status. Over the past 20 years, we have reached over 150,000 youth through summer camps, in-school workshops, community outreach trips, clubs, and more.

More information about Geering Up and our programs is available here.

What skills are we looking for?

- Experience working with groups of youth is an absolute necessity. Examples of this could include community centres, day camps, overnight camps, babysitting, coaching, or daycares
- Flexible, collaborative, and highly organized
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills are extremely important
- Capable of multi-tasking and comfortable with planning and executing tasks in a self-directed work environment
- All Geering Up Staff must have a Criminal Record Check on file before they may work with children.

What would you do in this role?

- Pick up and check out campers from Camps instructors at the end of camp day (3:00pm-5:00pm)
- Work with other instructors to prepare engaging and interesting activities
- Set up venue where campers will be supervised after camp
- Lead campers in games and adjust activities according to camper needs
- Follow safety and risk management policies and ensure every student is safe and having fun
- Provide suitable care to campers, be adaptable and exercise good judgement
- Supervise, and provide guidance to volunteer personnel
- Complete all evaluations and reports in a timely manner
- Perform other duties, as requested by the Camp Coordinators
